

Hidden Pines Fire

Final Incident Update
10/24/2015 5:00pm

The Unified Commanders of the Hidden Pines Fire are pleased to announce that the wildfire is 100% contained and under control. The Bastrop County Office of Emergency Management and other county officials are now completely engaged with recovery operations for our families, neighborhoods and ecosystems.

Bastrop County Judge Paul Pape said "With the widespread rainfall, we have finally declared the Hidden Pines fire contained. I am grateful to our Incident Command and the hundreds of men and women who valiantly fought to protect life and property. Now the long, difficult recovery can begin in earnest."

Sheriff Pickering would like to thank our law enforcement partner agencies for this event. Their assistance and team work were invaluable to the safety and security of the community.
